Lakewood Ranch Medical Center Receives Another "A"

Lakewood Ranch Medical Center was awarded an "A" from The Leapfrog Group's Fall 2018 Hospital Safety Grade. The designation recognizes Lakewood Ranch Medical Center's efforts in protecting patients from harm and meeting the highest safety standards in the United States. The Leapfrog Group is a national organization committed to improving health care quality and safety for consumers and purchasers. The Safety Grade assigns an A, B, C, D or F grade to hospitals across the country based on their performance in preventing medical errors, infections and other harms among patients in their care.

"It's very rewarding to receive consecutive 'A' Hospital Safety Grades," said Andy Guz, chief executive officer of Lakewood Ranch Medical Center. "Our entire team here at the hospital is committed to continually providing superior quality patient care, and we are honored by this distinction."

Leah Binder, president and CEO of The Leapfrog Group, said its safety grades recognize hospitals like Lakewood Ranch Medical Center that focus on advancing patient safety. "This ranking provides an important resource for patients," Binder said, "and a benchmark for hospitals, to determine how care at one hospital compares to others in a region. Hospitals that earn an 'A' Hospital Safety Grade deserve to be recognized for their efforts in preventing medical harm and errors."

Developed under the guidance of a National Expert Panel, the Leapfrog Hospital Safety Grade uses 28 measures of publicly available hospital safety data to assign grades to more than 2,600 U.S. hospitals twice per year. The Hospital Safety Grade's methodology is peer-reviewed and fully transparent, and the results are free to the public.

Founded in 2000 by large employers and other purchasers, The Leapfrog Group is a national nonprofit organization driving a movement for the quality and safety of American health care. The flagship Leapfrog Hospital Survey collects and transparently reports hospital performance, empowering purchasers to find the highest-value care and giving consumers the lifesaving information they need to make informed decisions. The Leapfrog Hospital Safety Grade, Leapfrog's other main initiative, assigns letter grades to hospitals based on their record of patient safety, helping consumers protect themselves and their families from errors, injuries, accidents, and infections.

Lakewood Ranch Medical Center was one of 855 hospitals across the United States awarded an "A" in the fall 2018 update of grades. To see Lakewood Ranch Medical Center's full grade details, and to access patient tips for staying safe in the hospital, visit www.hospitalsafetygrade.org.

Lakewood Ranch Medical Center is an acute care hospital providing patients access to a medical staff of more than 550 physicians and allied health professionals who practice in a comprehensive range of specialties, and who use the hospital's advanced medical technology. In addition to an emergency department (ER) that serves individuals of all ages 24 hours a day, seven days a week, the hospital offers a range of services including orthopedics, breast health, surgery, cardiovascular, childbirth, imaging/radiology, physical therapy, stroke and cerebrovascular, sleep as well as wound healing and hyperbaric medicine. To learn more about the hospital and why it's recognized as one of the safest hospitals in the nation by the Leapfrog group, visit www.LakewoodRanchMedicalCenter.com.

Neal Communities Unveils Indigo's Second Recreational Center

Neal Communities has officially opened a new recreational center at Indigo, a gated, resort-style community in Lakewood Ranch.

Known as the Indigo Oasis, the latest, second recreational center is an exclusive offering for villa homeowners in Indigo. Described by Neal officials as "luxurious and leisurely," the amenity center features a resort-style pool and spa, lounge deck, a gas grill and restroom facilities.

The already-established Club Indigo, which opened in 2015, boasts a full-time activities director and features areas for community events, a culinary kitchen, fitness room and movement studio, resort-style pool with cabanas, spa and pickleball and bocce ball courts.

"At Indigo, our residents live life to the fullest," said Tami Price, the activities director at Indigo. "Indigo is an extremely active community, and the residents here enjoy a full range of amenities. These facilities offer even more space for activities, including ways to socialize, stay fit and have fun."

A full calendar of ongoing and special events is planned, from paint parties and presentations to card games and outings. Residents can join the book club and bunco club or gather poolside for wine down Wednesday events.

Opened in May 2015, the neighborhood offers a variety of home designs and floor plans that embody Island, Spanish, Tuscan and Country French architectural designs. Once completed, Indigo will have a total of 580 maintenance-assisted homes on 151 acres. With 14 floor plans to choose from, home designs range from 1,407 to 2,908 square feet. Home prices in the community start at $257,990.

Located at the intersection of Pope Road and 44th Avenue East, Indigo is surrounded by mature oak trees intentionally preserved by the builder. The community is located in the heart of Lakewood Ranch, near shopping, A-rated schools and other recreational amenities in the area, including miles of walking and bike trails, nature preserves and parks, and polo and cricket clubs.

Open daily, potential homebuyers can browse through six professionally designed and decorated models at Indigo. Schedule a guided tour or make an appointment with a new home sales associate by calling 941-877-6394. Visit Indigo's Victory sales center and model at 12916 Deep Blue Place in Lakewood Ranch.

Lake Club Grande Clubhouse Opens for Residents

BY CHELSEA CLARKSON

I recently had the pleasure of attending the grand opening weekend at the Lake Club Grande Clubhouse. It was my first time driving through The Lake Club, and my children and I enjoyed watching out the window and getting a look at the lovely, custom-built estates along the lake.

"It's a castle!" my four-year-old daughter exclaimed as we parked in front of the Tuscan-inspired, 20,000-square-foot clubhouse. I couldn't really disagree: this impressive building has a warm, romantic exterior and is built high overlooking the lake, much like a storybook castle. The newly renovated interior was full of coastal blues, silvers and grays, in what I assumed to be a respectful nod to our nearby Gulf of Mexico beaches.

We watched as residents signed in and collected their key fobs and gift bags. Most went straight to the dining area for lunch after taking a brief tour of the newly designed space. I felt a tad daunted at the idea of lunching with three excited, wiggling little girls, so we went straight for the zero entry children's pool instead.

I hadn't really expected a children's area complete with palm-tree fountains, water toys and a lifeguard on deck! Before long, my girls were swimming happily in the shallow water, coming out every now and then to sip on pretty, fizzy beverages with biodegradable barber shop-style straws. I was lying in the sun reading Jane Austen's "Emma," gratefully trying to recall the last time I read a book poolside. Every time I asked the staff a question, they would respond happily: "Sure, it's your club!" As a guest blogger attending the event, it is not actually my club ... but it was fun to play along, and I couldn't help but think how nice it was to have my question answered so affirmingly. A girl could get used to this, I thought.

The weekend would include a members' dinner, brunch and lunch bars, yoga, a cooking class and several skin care sessions. The pools and patios are thoughtfully designed, with attractive fountains to keep the water circulating and shaded chaise loungers that are beyond comfortable.

There was a gentle pace to the event, with people coming and going in small groups throughout the weekend. I smiled, listening to the steelpan band playing down below. The group covered such an incredible variety of songs: I heard everything from Sade's "Smooth Operator," to Guns N' Roses "Knocking on Heaven's Door," to a clean, catchy rendition of rapper Drake's "In My Feelings." If I've learned anything attending events in Lakewood Ranch, it's that the music doesn't disappoint.

I eventually braved the dining room with my little ones, where we were treated warmly by our hostess and server. I contentedly sipped on some Southern iced tea and took in the tall ceilings and cool colors. Being a bit of a foodie, I am always relieved to see so much green on a food bar and was elated to have a meal that was both hearty and healthy after spending an hour in the Florida sun. My husband, a local poultry farmer, finally joined us when the Sarasota farmers market ended. He could have easily eaten at least 20 of the artisan sandwiches on the lunch bar, but thankfully he restrained himself and I still have my job.

that this event was sure to offer.

It was a near perfect Saturday for our family, and I'm sure Lake Club members will enjoy many such weekends in the future. The grand opening festivities culminated with an evening event featuring the Bay Kings Band and trolley rides through the neighborhoods. If I'm being honest, they had me at trolley ride, but I was just as excited to catch the Bay Kings and partake of the fine food and drink

The Lake Club Grande Clubhouse is available to rent for special events, on a limited basis. For more information, contact Kim Seidensticker at kim@lakeclublife.com.

Modern Gents at The Green in Lakewood Ranch

BY ERNIE SOLLER, Community Correspondent

There is a "new" barber shop that opened a few months ago in The Green at Lakewood Ranch. At this fascinating place, you can get a haircut ... and a beer (or glass of wine if you prefer). This tonsorial emporium is called Modern Gents Premier Barbershop and Bar, and it is located at the corner of Lakewood Ranch Boulevard and State Road 70; 11573 S.R. 70, Ste. 107, to be precise.

This location can be found in the "cut-through" roadway that runs through the middle of The Green shopping center.

So why a barber-and-beer place?

The owners, Nick Amanitidis and Reuben Toledo, who are from California, decided to combine two of the things that guys like (getting themselves looking good, and having a brew with their friends) into one business that provides both ... Modern Gents Premier Barbershop and Bar.

The idea was to fuse the traditional neighborhood barbershop experience with the relaxing ambiance of a small bar in an upscale manner. Judging by my experience at Modern Gents, I must admit that this place will have a lot of appeal for guys who want a good haircut, and maybe a few other extra services, and like the idea of being able to have a cold glass of brew after their "make me look good" experience.

I had called ahead for an appointment, and was greeted as I walked in the door, handed a bottle of water, and introduced to the barber, Ammi, who would be trimming my curly locks. She escorted me to the barbering area in the rear of Modern Gents, asked about my preferences as to my haircut, and cleaned my "hair act" up quite well.

Having accomplished getting my haircut, I retired to the bar area in the front of the store for a cold glass of Du-Mi Dubbel, a local brew from Lakewood Ranch's Naughty Monk Brewery, which is located just up the street on Lakewood Ranch Boulevard. Modern Gents has made an effort to offer beers from local craft breweries, such as Big Top, Motorworks, and others. If beer is not to your taste, you can also get wine.

Another feature of Modern Gents is their range of services. Most neighborhood barbershops, and certainly very few of the chain econo-barber places don't offer services such as manicures and pedicures. Modern Gents does.

It used to be that guys weren't all that vain about getting a bit older, but now, the idea of guys coloring their hair has become more acceptable, so Modern Gents gives their clients the opportunity to "tune-up" the color of their hair, in case the drugstore cure-all for their gray hair hasn't done

LAKEWOOD RANCH COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Building a true sense of community, through memorable events and social clubs.

The holiday spirit is everywhere you look in Lakewood Ranch, from the smiles of families you pass to the yuletide decor stretching from Main Street to our residential areas. Despite the lack of snow, with such whimsical holiday surroundings, it's hard not to feel like we don't live in the best community on earth. (Editor's note: the lack of snow is a main reason why many of us choose to live in LWR!) This is a time to share gratitude for our many blessings, and enjoy the feeling of community this season.

Keith Pandeloglou

and neighbors from all around the Ranch found vendors and activities for all ages. The carolers sung beautifully around the fountain, leading us all into the holiday spirit, while sipping on holiday favorites like hot cocoa and eggnog from our vendors ... perhaps even a glass of wine or two was shared!
If you are interested in becoming a vendor, sponsor or volunteer for future Lakewood Ranch Community Activity events please email info@lwrcac.org or call 941-757-1530 to get involved!

warm memories and special moments that our residents and business owners have shared with us over the years. Let's make this holiday season another fantastic memory for the books.
As we look forward to 2019, we're excited to continue a long tradition of bringing wonderful family-friendly events and programs to the LWR community at little to no cost to residents. Special thanks to our residents, community partners, sponsors, and amazing volunteers, without whom none of what we do would be possible.

Ranch Hosts New Live Music in the Park

Lakewood Ranch will host the first performance of its new "Backyard Concert Series" from 1-4 p.m. Jan. 13 at Summerfield Community Park. Alternative, folk-rock band "Have Gun, Will Travel" will perform.

Have Gun, Will Travel's music has been featured in a national Chevy TV commercial, as well as the PBS series Roadtrip Nation, CBS's The Good Wife, Travel Channel's Expedition Unknown and the Netflix series The Ranch. Their live performances have been described as rousing, rollicking, energetic and dynamic.

The event is free, and attendees are invited to bring their own picnics, but food trucks will also be available. No glass is allowed, and furry friends should be left at home.

The new series is meant to be a laid-back alternative to the more frenetic pace of Music on Main. It should be a relaxing, Sunday gathering meant to foster camaraderie, according to Monaca Onstad, director of community relations for LWR Communities. The event is part of an effort to activate the various park spaces on the Ranch. It's also meant to test the waters for a larger, more permanent music series at the Waterside Place park, which is currently under construction.

Onstad said that the three-part Summerfield series may be extended if the public reaction is good.

Parking is extremely limited, so participants are encouraged to walk, bike, or rideshare to the park. The proximity of Summerfield Park to so many homes is part of the reason the location was chosen, Onstad said.

Other scheduled dates are Feb. 10, which will feature "The Music Makers"; and March 10, with the "Bearded Brothers Band."

The event is presented by Lakewood Ranch, the Lakewood Ranch Community Fund, and Lakewood Ranch Community Activities Corporation.

BARCTOBERFEST

RANCH SHOWS ITS LOVE FOR PETS

The Animal Rescue Coalition (ARC) and Lakewood Ranch Communities hosted a new pet fest at the end of October in Bob Gardner Park in Lakewood Ranch.

Attendees enjoyed a fun-filled day of pet-related activities with their dogs, including beer, wine and food; agility, disc and nose-work demonstrations, and popular pet-related company booths ... all while listening to a great band – Reverend Barry and the Funk.

And of course, there were pets in costume for a pet parade!

The event helped support the ARC mission of making high-quality, low-cost spay/neuter available for everyone. In the last 20 years, ARC has performed nearly 60,000 spay/neuter surgeries; both the public and rescue organizations rely on ARC for their spay/neuter, vaccination and microchipping needs. Spay/neuter is the single most effective way to end shelter overcrowding and to top the senseless killing of innocent animals.

all that great a job. They'll even color your beard and eyebrows, should your hair in these areas be giving away your age.

The prices for the extra services offered at Modern Gents vary with the extent of those services. For example, the basic adult haircut runs $25, while the "premier" service, including a facial, ear/nose/and eyebrow trim, hot towel, warm lather neck shave, shampoo, and massage will bump the price up to $58, slightly higher for the same service performed by a master barber.

Modern Gents has daily specials, aimed at saving their clients money. Seniors get a 10 percent reduction in fees between the hours of 9 and 10 a.m. everyday. Students get the same discount between 3 and 4 p.m.

And, for those looking to get a haircut and a beer after work, there is - yes - a happy hour at Modern Gents between 4 and 6 p.m. All beverages are buy one, get one free during happy hour.

Modern Gents can also arrange for group parties, such as a get together for the guys before a wedding, an event at which they can come out looking good and have a unique "male bonding" session.

Another unique feature of Modern Gents is its membership program. There are monthly service memberships, coloring memberships, and even seasonal memberships. The annual VIP membership includes unlimited services, plus all sorts of extras and goodies, such as a complimentary drink with each service visit, a cigar, free admission to any special events at modern Gents, etc. Is the annual membership inexpensive? Not exactly, but for the guy who needs to look his best all day and every day, it may be a pretty good option.

So, there's a new barbering concept in town, and its called Modern Gents. Check it out.

Fixed income, increasing expenses.

4 OUT OF 10 PEOPLE in our community are ONE PAYCHECK AWAY from being homeless.

With your help, Season of Sharing provides funds to help individuals and families living on the economic edge in our community, ensuring a solution, not homelessness. This fund ensures that members of our community still have a roof over their heads.

This year, thanks to a matching opportunity from The Patterson Foundation, every $500,000 raised this year will be met with an additional $100,000. Also, when the campaign reaches $1 million, Community Foundation of Sarasota County will contribute another $100,000, as well as another $100,000 as a capping gift to achieve $2 million to assist those most vulnerable in our community.

EVERY GIFT MATTERS.

As a community, we can provide a helping hand. We believe that everyone can be a philanthropist, and because of support from Season of Sharing partners, all of your donation — 100% — goes directly to those who need it.
